

FINANCIAL DONATION INFORMATION
for
Welcoming the Stranger's Critical Needs Fund
April 2017

Financial donations to Welcoming the Stranger's Critical Needs Fund are enthusiastically accepted and deeply appreciated! All financial donations are fully tax-deductible, and are used to provide modest stipends to meet critical needs of asylum-seekers who are mentees in our program and for which no other funding is available. These critical needs include food, clothing, transportation, medical costs, etc.

100% of your contribution will be used for these stipends. Temple Beth El has generously agreed to provide all accounting work required to administer the fund at no cost, and Welcoming the Stranger volunteers are doing the rest!

If you would like to contribute, please make out a check to Temple Beth El, and in the memo line write "Welcoming the Stranger fund." Please enclose a note or "sticky" indicating that the money is for the Welcoming the Stranger fund, and provide your contact information, including mailing address. The check should be mailed to:

Ms. Sherri Quint

If you have additional questions regarding a possible donation, please contact Ron Kreisman at 207.699.4558, or email him at ron@kreisman.net.

THANK YOU!
